WOLGAST UP AGAINST HARD PROPOSITION

Champion Has His Work Cut Out for Him in Coming Battle With Moran, Tough

Coming Battle With Moran, Tough

Washington, D. C., June 25.—Can Wolgast beat Moran on points or by a knockout? This question is causing much speculation among sporting men who await with interest the result of the big lightweight championship fight in San Francisco on July 4. For more than six months, Moran, the conqueror of Battling Nelson, has been waiting for this chance, and in order to get in he has been compelled to grant concesssilons. Wolgast will receive $12,500, win, lose or draw, while Moran's end will be a percentage.

Moran is conceded to be the hardest preposition that Wolgast has been asked to solve. The Englishman will have the worst of the weights even at 133 ringside, as he will scale at about 125, yet he is confident of victory. He has had a much longer experience in the ring, and in seventy nghts he has never been knocked down He is a shifty boxer, a heavy hitter, and is a natural fighter, with unlimited gameness. The fact that he is the only man who ever put Nelson out is proof that he is a dangerous puncher, yet there seems to be much doubt whether he can make a similar impression upon the lightweight champion

Moran's showing depends almost wholly upon his physical condition.

Moran's showing depends almost
wholly upon his physical condition.

Description and is since that affair took place, and is an entirely different proposition. Still, Moran believes he knows more about the game than Wolgast and can stop him before the limit is reached.

here seems to be an inske a similar impression upon the lightweight champion.

Moran's showing depends almost wholly upon his physical condition. After defeating Nelson the Briton broke training and cut out a fast pace, the let up just long enough to train two weeks for the bout with Packy Merarian, at the Fairmont Athletic Club, in which he was easily outpointed. Then he returned to the old ways and appeared to care nothing for the consequences until the march with Welgast was cinched.

With this big fight in view and all that goes with a victory, Moran gave up the white lights and proceeded to walk a crack. He has not sidestepped since, so his manager says, and his one ambition is to beat the tittle-holder, Moran has been training for a month near 'Frisco, and reports say that he has not sidestepped since, and reports say that he has not sidestepped since, and reports say that he has not sidestepped since, and reports say that he has not sidestepped since, and reports say that he has not sidestepped since, and reports say that he has not sidestepped since ambition is to beat the tittle-holder. Asheville, N. C., June 25.—The nine-teenth annual Southern Students' Con-ference of the Young Men's Christian Association closed to-night, when Dr. W. D. Weatherford, in the presence of the full delegation which opened the conference, outlined the work accom-plished during the ten days' meeting and the results which he expected to follow in its wake.

"I feel," said Dr. Weatherford, "Next

"I feel," said Dr. Weatherford, "that more lasting good has been accomplished here this year than in any conterence heretofore held. The attendance has been more truly representative of the South than in past years, and the spirit which has animated this large body of delegates tesses nothing to be desired."

This morning's services were conducted by Clayton S. Cooper, Bible study and mission secretary of the international committee.

GRAND PRIX DE PARIS car IS WON BY AS D'ATOUT

Paris, June 25—The Grand Prix de Paris, the blue rinbon event of the French turf, was won to-day by Marquis de Gannay's black colt. As D'Atout, Frank Gilbay's colt. Combourg second, close up, and Michael Ephrussis English norce. Matchless, a bad third close up, and Michael Ephrasis English horse. Matchiess a bad third Yvette owned by Mason Carnes, a New Yorker, who resides in Paris, ran but was unplaced. Every year the Pregident of the republic accompanied by members of his Caninet attends the Grand Prix de Paris which is the closing event of the Paris season Notwithstanding the lowering louds and the two sharp showers of rain President Fallieres was in attendance to day. Many diplomats and a great gathering of society people, as well as a host of Americans, who had come to Long Champs from the coronation, witnessed the race, which proved a spirited stringle between As D'Atout and the Gould crack.

Both horses were at long odds, the former at 16 to 1 and the latter at 15 to 1, but in the stretch they had the race to themselves. Coming home to the wire the two raced head and head, but Combourg was in a had position against the objection.

Some of the men attended services in the Poughkeepsie churches.

Everything is now in readiness for the regatta Tuesday. The last stroke of actual training has been taken by the crews, and to-morrow their only exercise will be a limbering up row, probably not more than a few miles at easy paces. In the three weeks of training there has been such a marked improvement in the crews that the coaches expressed themselves as easy in their minds to-day regarding the quality of the work that will be shown in the three events, although, of course, there is the usual air of uncertainty in all camps.

Cornell, as in previous years, is the acknowledged favorite. This year, however, Columbia has loomed up larger than ever in the speculation on the result. The experts seem to agree that Columbia will be a big factor in three, races, and there are many who would not be surprised to see a general shakeup in the final markings. Pennsylvania is thought to be nearly equal to Cornell and Columbia, and Syracuse with her good crew is not left out of the reckoning, Wisconsin camp, further cripting the Badgers. Samp, at No. 5 in the variety boat, shows no improvement, and the race Tuesday. His hand is infected. Harry Vall is not likely to permit Kennedy, bow in the froshman boat, to row, as Kennedy is uneasy regarding the illness of his sister, who is reported critically ill at Madison, Wis. WILL NOT AFFECT COLONY'S FUTURE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., June 25.—The future of the State Epileptic Colony here will not be affected adversely by the ton, in the fight over the possession Legislature to be sold for the benefit of the colony. It is learned from a member of the colony board that At-member of the colony board that Attorney-General Williams will attempt to appeal the case to the State Supreme Court of Appeals.

The board of the Staunton hospital has fought for years for the property, or the proceeds of its sale, the fight osometimes being a bitter one, and at one time came near defeating the establishment of the epileptic colony. Indeed, it did delay its establishment several years.

The board of the colony expects to secure money from the next Legislature not only for the maintenance of the colony, but for its enlargement next year. One hundred epileptics are now being cared for at the colony.

FANS WILL VOTE ON HOUR OF GAME

Detroit, Mich., June 25.—The Detroit fans will be allowed to decide the question as to whether the local American League games are staged -ariler than at present. The same plan, that of allowing the fans to vote as they enter the grounds, as was used in Cleveland, will be adopted. There has been a good deal of complaint in the American League towns to the effect that if the games went more than the usual nine innings it meant that the fans would be late in leaving the light. A number of other clubs, both in this and other leagues, have either changed the time themselves or allowed the fans to name the hour preferred.
